

SEN NANNY SERVICES

Term Time= Wednesday & Thursdays
School Holidays= Wednesday to Saturday. (Booked in advance)

My SEN Nanny service is a unique service to empower parents & little sensory explorers in their own home or widen their experience through adventures out & about.

During Term Time I have a limited number of SEN nanny sessions available on Wednesdays & Thursdays & More sessions available during holiday time Wednesday to Sundays. (Booked in advance of holidays following a 1hr parent consultation (£35) & play assessment (£35))

What can SEN Nanny support with?

- Going on family holidays, preparing & supporting your sensory learners for new experiences.
- school pickups when your SEN child is at a different school to your other children
- behaviour support strategies at home,
- helping set up structure or schedules at your home,
- setting up or providing sensory/emotional regulation play at home,
- helping positively expose your little learners to new adventures out & about
- simply looking after your little sensory learners at your home to give you a chance to have some respite or go out on appointments or dinner dates.

This is a unique service which works best on a 1-1 basis to enable me to really get to know & empower your SEN child's sensory/emotional regulation needs, to help model play or shadow your child while out & about to create positive new sensory experiences, but should you require additional children to be supported as well, it is possible for me to bring my SEN assistant with me also to support sibling groups if necessary.

For longer term sign ups only I'm happy to offer this under your Direct Payments (DP) as the paperwork with your SEN social worker can take some time but if I am already registered for DP with you that is easy.

- Price starts from £25 per hour (2 hour minimum booking)
- Prior to sessions starting there is an initial 1hour parent consultation (£35) &/or at least 1 play/safety assessment at my woodland HQ before taking all new sensory learners out on sensory adventures (£35).
- For homes outside of Ballynahinch areas mileage is additional. (£0.50 per mile)
